

Salem High School empowers all students with the knowledge and skills to access college and career opportunities that will allow them to excel and contribute to society.

Course Name	AP Environmental Science
Instructors	Marcoux
Instructor Contact Info.	graememarcoux@learn.salemk12.org Remind- @shapes1920
Summer Assignment Rationale	As students in APES typically arrive with varying academic backgrounds educational experiences, the summer work for the course consists of optional (ungraded) review work from the fields of math, biology, chemistry and social studies. A solid foundation in these academic areas is essential for success in APES.
Summer Communication Expectations	The student will . . . <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Join the class remind, access code @shapes1920 Join the Google classroom, access code um6u2yy Join the Schoology course, access code 9X9T-M7RN-B4HG4 Log into Google Classroom and Schoology as members of the class. Reach out to Marcoux in need of review support. 	Target Dates 1 and 2. - July 1, 2019 3. By August 1 st 2019
	The teacher will . . . Send messages via Remind throughout the summer to encourage students to access the review materials in the online platforms (Google Classroom and Schoology) and also to invite them to special APES events at the school and in the community throughout the summer.	Target Dates June 20, 2019- September 4, 2019

Salem High School empowers all students with the knowledge and skills to access college and career opportunities that will allow them to excel and contribute to society.

Summary of Assignment	The student will: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Access and complete the review materials in the online platforms as needed in order to arrive fully prepared to succeed in AP Environmental Science.2. Request extra help and support with the review material as needed throughout the summer via Remind and/or email with Mr. Marcoux.3. Make efforts to engage in at least one of the APES experiences promoted by Mr. Marcoux throughout the summer.
Attachments and Materials Needed to Complete Assignment

Salem High School empowers all students with the knowledge and skills to access college and career opportunities that will allow them to excel and contribute to society.
